Lincoln-Way Bows To Rams; Bremen Is Next Foe

BY GREG FANT
The Reavis Rams celebrated their homecoming by literally running away from the Lincoln-Way Knights and scoring a 48-7 victory as Bill Julian ran for four touchdowns.

In the first quarter, the Rams scored twice on runs of 32 and 10 yds. by Julian. Bob Bonarigo kicked both extra points to make the score at the end of the first quarter, 14-0 in favor of Reavis. The Rams then exploded for three touchdowns in the second quarter. The first came on a 51 yard run by Julian. Bonarigo kicked the extra point to make the score 21-0. Julian then intercepted a pass thrown by Knight quarterback Howard Grimes and raced 63 yards to paydirt. Bonarigo again kicked the extra point to make the score 28-0. Then Ram quarterback Tom Russian hit Chuck Duesing with a pass and Duesing then carried the ball over the goal line for six points. The extra point try was missed and the score stood 34-0 at halftime.

In the third period the Rams struck again on a 14-yard run by Paul Taeuber. Bill McIlvoy kicked the extra point to make the score at the end of three periods, 41-0 in favor of Reavis. In the fourth quarter Taeuber scored again, this time on a 20-yard run. McIlvoy kicked the extra point to make the score 48-0. Then, with only 50 seconds showing on the scoreboard clock, the Knights scored their only touchdown of the night when Howard Grimes plunged over from one yard out. Van DeLay ran in a successful attempt at making the extra point. The final score was Reavis 48, Lincoln-Way 7.

After Reavis took the opening kickoff in for the score, they were never to be headed for the rest of the evening. They gained a total of 268 yards rushing and 105 passing. The Knights gained 80 yards rushing and 85 yards passing. Reavis was penalized for 26 yards and the Knights for 23 yards.

The sophomore Knights almost pulled off an upset in the preliminary contest as they lost to the Rams by a final score of 25-13. The Rams, who are leading the Southwest Suburban Conference sophomore football race with a 5-0 record, didn't seem to be as strong as their record indicates. The sophomore Knights seemed to be in their fighting all the way and had it not been for a couple of mistakes by the Knights and what appeared to be some poor refereeing, the Knights would have won that contest. Reavis scored on the opening kickoff and were never headed, but the Knights really put up a strong fight. Wendell Bormet was the outstanding player for the Knights on both offense and defense. Wendell scored one of the two Knight touchdowns on a 26 yard run up the middle. Bob Bowser scored the other TD on an around end sweep covering 13 yards. Considering yards rushing, yards passing, and yards penalized, the Knights trailed the Rams in total yards by only 17 yards.

The freshman Knights lost

last Saturday morning to the Rams by a final score of 21-0.

The season records show the varsity Knights with a 1-5-0, the sophomores with an identical 1-5-0, and the freshman Knights with a 0-6 record.

This Saturday they travel to Bremen to meet the tough Bremen Braves. Bremen has a 1-4 showing in the conference standings but they seem to be getting tougher as the season progresses. Rich East took over first place by whipping the Braves, 34-7, while the Carl Sandburg Eagles were being beaten by the Oak Lawn Spartans, 26-0. Rich has a 5-0-0 conference record, Sandburg a 4-1-0 record.

Delay Of Work On FAI-80 Irks Southwest Communities

Thirty-two communities in south Cook county are reported to be ready to throw their weight against further delay in the construction of FAI-80 highway between Hazel Crest and Joliet.

From the conversation among officials and persons interested in proper development of the southwest suburban area politics appears to be the stumbling block. The suburbs complain that Chicago's Mayor Daley is still fighting to grab what federal funds he can to bail out the ill-fated Chicago Skyway toll section and on top of that the toll commission, pressed for money in the face of falling revenues is trying to force the federal government into an agreement under which the toll authority could charge motorists a fee for using a section of highway west of Hazel Crest which gives connection with the Illinois-Indiana tollway.

When the federal aid program for the building of super highways crossing the continent east and west and north and south was launched one of the arguments used in voting the huge appropriations was that such a system was a defense measure. In the event of war the government wanted to be able to transfer supplies swiftly -- and if need be populations. To that end the government made considerable use of toll roads on the eastern end of FAI-80, from the east coast west but when the project reached this area the government declined to participate any further in such a program.

The advance of missile projects has ended any need of haste in completing a road system for defense purposes, it was pointed out, but the highways are sorely needed to take care of the tremendous traffic growth.

Existing highways are unable to carry the traffic properly in metropolitan areas where housing development are mushrooming and city and village planners are fearful that factories and industries will not compete for a place on the roads unless new roads are forthcoming.

The only east and west road now serving the area is U.S. 30, and in a fashion U.S. 6, but neither can cope with the streams of increasing traffic, it was stated. Both are bottlenecks.

Last year the state highway engineer's district office at Elgin stated that the grading on FAI-80 between Hazel Crest and Joliet would be completed in 1963 and that the paving of the road could be expected in 1964 and that it would be ready for use by 1965.

Organizations and municipalities who look to completion of FAI-80 as a means of attracting industry are protesting the delay. In addition to the grading of the road this year, the grade separations at various points were supposed to be well on their way to completion also. To date there has been no grading for FAI-80 in Will county east of Joliet and the only work on a grade separation has been east of Tinley Park.

Meanwhile communities are fighting truck traffic that has deserted U.S. 30 whenever possible because of congestion and has taken to the secondary roads.

A motorist from the Mokena area reported that while having a cup of coffee at a truck stop at New Buffalo, Mich., he saw folders that were being given to truck drivers. One piece of advice they contained was to get off U.S. 30 and take Sauk Trail west of Chicago Heights, Sauk Trail, is a secondary road and not built to carry semi-trailers and heavy traffic, it is pointed out.

Adopt Resolution Urging Completion Of Highway

The Regional Association of South Cook-Will County Municipalities held a regular meeting of their members Friday evening in the Thornton township hall in South Holland. The meeting was planned mainly to hear developments as regards drainage plans for the area. However, interest in completion of FAI-80 between Hazel Crest and Joliet, had placed Mayor Maurino R. Richton of Chicago Heights, as the first speaker of the evening. Mayor Richton is also chairman of the special area-traffic committee which is devoted to the earliest possible completion of FAI-80.

Mayor Richton addressed the group and advised that Chicago Heights is a serious victim of lack of completion of I-80 in this segment and that the special traffic committee had requested that a committee of its members be formed call on governor Kerner and explain to him the serious nature of reliance on U.S. 30 for transport between Chicago Heights and Joliet and referred to Rt. 30 as a "death trap". He also pointed out that lack of completion of this segment between Hazel Crest and U.S. 66, is, in effect, a blockage of industrial development of the whole area.

It also was pointed out that the industrial development just south of Lake Michigan (Gary-Hammond, etc.) is the largest industrial production area in the United States and probably in the world and that stoppage of products of this industrial complex from fast and efficient traffic to U.S. 66 and thence to the southwest, St. Louis, and the west coast, is a tremendous industrial handicap to the whole middle west and west as well as ourselves. Mayor Richton also pointed to the development of the St. Lawrence waterway and canal system which cannot develop fully without completion of I-80 promptly.

Mayor Richton advised the group that he had made three attempts to obtain an appointment with the governor for his committee and had not as yet received a direct communication from the governor nor an appointment date. He was first referred to Francis Lorenz, the governor's office, Mr. Lorenz is director of public works. Mayor Richton felt that his mission with the other mayors was so vital to the economy of the entire area, that he must make every effort to meet with the governor himself rather than any substitute.

After some discussion of the fact that the dependence on U.S. 30, was bringing about unlawful use of other area highways by trucks and with certainty that these highways will soon need expensive replacement, and the dangers of Rt. 30 as well as the poor transportation situation and its effect on jobs and general business in the area, Karl Treen representing Harvey, proposed a resolution that the organization express itself thru a resolution using that of Mokena as an example and request and early completion of FAI-80, but with the earliest possible meeting of Mayor Richton's committee with the governor.

The Regional Association of South Cook-Will County Municipalities is composed of representatives of 34 towns and villages. The members requested that Mokena be asked to join with them as there are many problems which can be solved more efficiently thru unity with other communities in this area than can be handled alone. Tinley Park is a member.

FRED G. LEHMANN, recently appointed executive secretary of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce, is a busy man as fall brings resumption of activities of the organization. The Mokena chamber is to sponsor its second annual awards dinner next month and right now it is supplying the canvassers for the Will County United Crusade fund drive. (Graphic Newspaper Photo)

Mokena C. of C. Backs United Crusade Drive

The Mokena Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the canvass to be undertaken there for the United Crusade of Will County, Inc.

The membership is being assigned to the various districts into which the village has been divided by Charles Swanberg, chairman of the campaign.

Each member is thus a captain and each will select his own team. Swanberg suggests that the captains enroll friends or perhaps church groups to aid him in covering the district.

The campaign is already underway in the county and those in charge have set next Thursday, Oct. 31, as the date on which it is to be completed.

The 22 original members that shared in the funds collected in the annual county Community Chest drive has been increased this year and the new set up includes the Red Cross which will not conduct its annual membership campaign this year.

The campaign material was distributed to the membership at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night.

The team captains will report to Swanberg on the amounts their canvassers collect.

"This is a big job but a vital one," Swanberg said in a letter sent to the C. of C. membership, "and its success depends upon the ability of each member to cooperate in doing his share."

Sidewalk Project Nears Completion At Mokena

The sidewalk project along Mokena's front street is nearing completion. To finish the job will cost $2,245, according to a bid by F.D. Friant. The board of trustees also has a price of $1,950 from A. C. Brandau, and $3,000 from Trygg Paving for blacktopping the space between the walks and the curbs.

The board voted to amend the one-way street ordinance to limit one-way traffic on Midland ave. from Front to Carpenter street, and open the block between Carpenter and Third to two-way travel.

The board is also checking with the Rock Island to see if it can persuade the railroad to improve its parking lot and build a cross walk over the tracks at the Wolf road crossing for the convenience of pedestrians and youthful cyclists.

Trustee Will Tuttle reported that too many water meters were being read by the users instead of a meter reader. He suggested a meter reader be hired on a fee basis for each meter read and with a time limit of three days to a week for the job. Mayor Charles Swanberg thought it would be useful if a tag and seal were affixed to each meter so no one would tamper with them.

The board also served notice that the sewage disposal plant site is not a dumping ground for trash.

A. J. Pape, 65, N. Lenox, Dies

August J. Pape, 65, late of 625 S. Pine St., New Lenox, died suddenly at his home on Sunday, Oct. 20. Altho his death came suddenly he had been in ill health for the past four years.

Born at Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29, 1897, he had been a resident of New Lenox since 1940.

Besides his wife, Ruby, Mr. Pape is survived by one stepdaughter, Thelma, Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Harvey; two step-sons, Donald Leach, of New Lenox, and Theodore Leach, of Joliet; one sister, Ada, Mrs. William White, of Paw Paw, Mich., five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Removal was to the Baskerville funeral home, Roberts rd. and Lincoln highway, New Lenox, where services were held Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 22, with the Rev. Glenn E. Ames, pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church officiating.

CAR WASH
The Lutheran Youth League of Immanuel Lutheran church, Mokena, is staging a car wash Sunday, Oct. 27 at Walter Yunker's garage on Front st., east of the postoffice. The hours will be from 12 noon to 5 p.m. Wash jobs will $1.50; wash and wax, $7.50.

OCTOBER'S SUMMER temperatures prevailed upon the carrots planted by Mrs. Fred P. Kahl last spring -- without results -- to try again. They did and now Mrs. Kahl, who resides at 143rd st. and 108th ave., Orland township, has been harvesting carrots that are larger than any ever illustrated in a seed catalog. Some, such as displayed here, have weighed one and a half pounds. When they came up the first time the best they could do was show some leaves, Mrs. Kahl said. (Graphic Newspaper Photo)

CD Program Vital To Area, Villages Are Told

The importance of civilian defense to preserve life and local government in the face of natural or man-made disaster was stressed at the meeting of the Frankfort village board Monday night by a state CD official.

This official, Glenn Curry, is chief of the accreditation service of Civilian Defense in Illinois. Will county, he said, has only recently been accredited. Mokena has just been accredited and Frankfort will be when and if the CD director, the mayor or some member of the village board will attend a one-day accreditation school to be held soon at Chicago.

Renewal of accreditation is required each year of a community. With Will county being accredited its civilian defense efforts will be applied to the unincorporated areas, Curry said, but the municipalities will each have their own set up. Mokena, Frankfort and the township of Frankfort now pay the premiums on a blanket insurance policy to protect CD workers in performance of their duties. At the time this insurance was taken out last year the villages were informed that if such a policy was not taken out the communities would not be accredited and not to be accredited means that a community is cut off from a chance at the surplus property bargains that sometimes are available, it was pointed out.

Mr. Curry said that now the county is accredited it takes care of the insurance angle. He was somewhat puzzled as to why Frankfort, Mokena and Frankfort township had to buy insurance but felt sure that no such demand had been by the state CD.

Complaints from some of the people present -- CD personnel -- that it was tough to find anything but junk at the surplus property sales Mr. Curry brushed them off with the remark that the right of CD units (if and when properly accredited) to purchase government surplus property is only a small and unimportant part of the CD program.

Incidentally Mr. Curry brought out that the CD program had the last chance at any surplus property, being outranked by the schools, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other agencies in this respect.

The big thing for CD, Curry declared, is to combat the effects of disaster on a community.

Mayor Charles Swanberg and Village Trustee Marvin Weitendorf, of Mokena, and Mokena CD Director, Tony Dina, attended the meeting in the Frankfort village hall.

Mr. Weitendorf pointed out that the big handicap for villages in setting up CD programs in keeping with the state and national concepts of the program.

"We just don't have the manpower and money," Weitendorf stated.

Mr. Curry pointed out that the federal government is ready to help communities in setting up CD programs and will give them a dollar for every dollar they put up.

Matching funds mean little, if anything, in this area, local officials agreed, because the villages don't have any extra money.

Frankfort would like to extend a watermain to the park as the beginning of an extension that would carry water to an indus-

Remember To Turn Clocks Back Sunday

Here we are again, folks, time to change the clocks and get back on central standard time after six months of daylight saving.

The change is to take place officially at 2 a.m. the last Sunday in October which will be this coming Sunday. At that time clocks running on daylight time will be turned back an hour and be off and running on standard time.

In advancing the clocks an hour last April a lot of people lost an hour of sleep. They have a chance to get it back now. Better make the change before retiring Saturday night or you may find yourself off schedule for church and other activities on Sunday.

trial section should one be developed west of the village but it doesn't have the money for that purpose now.

The village has a well down now--the propellers at the bottom of the casing are worn out and will no longer serve the pump. The work will be completed as soon as the parts arrive, it was reported. Inspection of the rubber bushings, that were so controversial when the pump was purchased some 30 years ago, reveal they are still good, still giving service and show little signs of wear, according to Village Clerk Walter Pfaff.

At the time the pump was bought a segment of the population opposed the purchase, contending that the rubber bushings wouldn't last. Village officials ask the public to conserve on water while the well is down. The village has another well along the E.J. & E. right of way and the pump there now has to bear the entire burden of furnishing a water supply. The main well, at the village hall, probably will not be in use for another 10 days or two weeks, it was said.

Blacktopping of White street by the state was to have been completed today, village officials said. Three-foot shoulders of blacktop were laid along each side of the street last week, increasing the overall width to 24 feet from 18. Nebraska street resurfacing is not on this year's agenda, it was stated.

Youths Aid Unicef Fund

The MYF of the Mokena Methodist church will be collecting for UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund), Sunday, Oct. 27 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Each youth will be wearing the UNICEF arm band to identify himself. Householders are asked to help the crusade against hunger and disease in over 100 countries thru backing the youth as they knock at their door.

As in the past, the MYF and IYF of the Orland Park Methodist church will be collecting Saturday, Oct. 26 at 5:30 p.m.

The youth group of St. Peter's and Frankfort Methodist church will collect Sunday, Oct. 27 in their area.

The MYF of the Green Garden Methodist church (with younger children in costume) will canvass the neighborhood Friday, Oct. 25. All youth will meet at the church at 6 p.m.

New Lenox Girl In Top 10 Of Miss Teen Contest

A New Lenox girl and a senior at Lincoln-Way high school was one of the 10 finalists in the Miss Teen contest sponsored by a Chicago newspaper last week.

While she did not finish first the fact that Sandy finished in the first 10 was considered as outstanding because of the hundreds of girls entered. Sandy was entered, incidentally, thru a picture sent in by Al Behnke a Mokena photographer.

After the list of entries had been reduced to 25 the 10 finalists were picked after written examinations and interviews. The 10 were selected on the basis of poise, appearance, personality, grooming and talent.

Miss Kooyenga, who will be a vocalist at the annual Lincoln-Way high school band concert tomorrow night, is a singer that displays considerable talent, which is not surprising as her mother, Henrietta, is also a singer, and several years ago appeared in the role of Carmen in a Chicago production of the famous opera. Sandy is a pupil of Sonia Sharnova, at the Chicago Conservatory. Sharnova is president of the National Vocal Teachers Association.

As one of the 10 finalists in the Miss Teen contest Sandy will serve on a teen age board in Chicago in affiliation with Station WTTW, Channel 11 and participate in other teen activities in the city for the next year.

Byzantine Rites To Mark Service At St. Michael's

A Byzantine rite mass (liturgy) will be celebrated on Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in St. Michael's church, Orland Park. Celebrant of the Liturgy will be the Rev. Vladimir Tarasevitch, C.O.S.B. of Christ the Redeemer church, Chicago, a church of the Eastern Catholic Rite. Nov. 1, the Feast of All Saints in the Roman Catholic liturgy, is a holy day for all members of the Roman Catholic rite who are obligated to attend mass on that day. According to the Rev. Frank Coyle, pastor of St. Michael church, attendance at this Byzantine mass-liturgy will fulfill the obligation for a Roman Catholic.

Altho the Byzantine rite liturgy varies considerably from the Roman Catholic mass the essential parts -- the mass of the catechumens and the mass of the faithful including the offertory, consecration and communion -- are present. At the Last Supper Christ took bread, blessed it and broke it, and wine and blessed it and gave to the Apostles, telling them to go and do likewise. For a short time after His Ascension the Jewish-Christian converts went to the synagogue in the morning, reserving the Eucharist until evening, where it was usually joined to the meal partaken at that time. However, with the increasing persecution of the Christians and the destruction of the Jewish temple it became impossible to attend the synagogue and be a Christian too. Remnants of the synagogue practice remained in a morning service for novice converts -- mass of the Catechumens. As it became increasingly difficult to assemble secretly twice on a Saturday or Sunday (preferred as the day of Christ's Resurrection and the day of Pentecost) it became the custom to join the "synagogue" service -- mass of the Catechumens -- to the Eucharist service for the faithful -- mass of the faithful. The catechumens were instructed to leave before the mass of the faithful began. This command is retained, tho not now taken literally, in the Eastern Rite mass. The mass form at this early time was very fluid with only the essential parts fixed. The kind and length of prayers and hymns, etc., depended upon the priest celebrating the mass.

By the time of the Edict of Milan by the Emperor Constantine in 313 A.D., which allowed the Christians to practice their faith openly the mass began to appear in different, but definite patterns peculiar to certain areas. This variance was definitely sanctioned by the early church councils just as today the Pope constantly encourages Catholics to know the Eastern Rite better.

Frankfort Lions Club Inducts 8 New Members

Eight new members were inducted into the Frankfort Lions club at its dinner meeting in Arch Inn on Tuesday, Oct. 15.

The new members are: Virgil Coleman, Norman Foster, Michael McAndrew, Charles McManimen, Walter Mark, Charles Wetzler, Bruce Wells and David Zechlin.

The principal speaker was District Governor William Pfister, of Danvers. He discussed Lionism.

It was announced that Benjamin Todd had painted the two school bus shelters.

Robert Dean, club president, expressed the organization's appreciation for the aid given in the Lions annual candy sale to aid the blind. A total of $200 was raised thru the sale at Frankfort.

The Lions are proceeding with plans for a combination tennis and basketball court that can also be converted into an ice rink in the winter. The court will be located in the Community park and the committee is conferring with the village board relative to getting water to the site.

P.O.W. To Discuss Water And Sewer Needs Of Area

The seventh in a series of seminars sponsored by P.O.W. (Palos-Orland-Worth planning council) will be devoted to a discussion of the water and sewers for this area. Specific plans for bringing such utilities to the various towns in the area covered by P.O.W. will be presented and discussed by various city officials and engineers on Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock at the Palos Country club on 131st st. at Southwest highway.

The subject will be covered in a panel discussion, a la "At Random." Participating will be John Jones, geologist and Village Trustee, Art Cooper, president and William Gierach, attorney, all from Chicago Ridge, and Daniel Gawn, councilman, and Walter Wilson, engineer, both of Palos Park. Chairman of this session will be George Bizzato, chairman of the plan commission of Chicago Ridge. Zay Smith, co-ordinator

Board Gives O.K. To Golf Club Petition

The Will county zoning board of appeals is recommending to the county board that property at Parker road and 143rd st. be zoned B-2 to permit the sale of liquor in a golf club planned there by Herman Freshmand, a Chicago real estate dealer who also happens to be active in golf.

At the hearing, held in the Homer town hall, it was stated that plans are in the making for the rehabilitation of what was formerly the Kinsman golf course at this location, calling for the expenditure of half a million dollars. The plans include a clubhouse and the B-2 classification would permit the sale of liquor there.

The original clubhouse, a log type structure, was destroyed by fire 12 years ago. Since then the land has been farmed.

Freshmand has an option to purchase the property but wants to be assured of the zoning before completing the deal. He was represented at the hearing by Attorneys James M. Bartley and Ludwig Kuhar, of Joliet, and Art Y. Schoulson, Chicago.

Forty persons attended the hearing. Several of them complained that Freshmand has been advertising the property for sale. He admitted he is making the purchase for "speculation" but declared he will develop the course and build the clubhouse. It will be a private club, he stated.

Eagle Harriers Hopeful Of Conference Victory

BY MARO MILLER

On the 17th of October, the Carl Sandburg harriers finished up their dual meet competition with a 5-win, 3-loss, and 1-tie record. Chances looked good going into Wednesday's conference meet (Oct. 23).

The Eagles finished strong, taking two out of their last three meets, including a whitewash at Lincolnwood by 15-48 with Doran Harding, Dieter Kind, Chuck Crowhurst, Len Beesley, and Tim Sedgewick taking the top five spots.

Then they defeated a highly ranked Bremen team by the score of 24-32.

The Eagles next opponent, Rich, was highly ranked in the conference, being undefeated thus far. They kept their string going as they edged the Eagles 27-30. Johnson, a sophomore from Rich, won in record time of 9:44 for the 1.95 mile course. Sandburg's top six men set individual records with the first three breaking the ten minute barrier.

The Eagles controlled the top five positions with Harding finishing second; Reeves, third; and Kind, fifth. Crowhurst held his own, taking eighth. Rich, however, took the next five places to win the meet.

Another reason for optimism was the 11 team Tinley Park Invitational where Sandburg's thinclads took second, winner this first trophy of the season.

The Thornridge won, the Eagles beat other possible contenders for the crown in the 21 team district.

Last week Coach John Wilson was hoping for his first conference victory since 1958, when he said, "Timewise, this team is the best team we've had here at Sandburg." Scores from the conference meet Wednesday, were not available at press time.

Week Left To Sign Up For Trip To Washington

More than 35 applications for the Carl Sandburg trip to Washington, D.C., have been given out, according to G.W. Davidson, principal.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The Russian wheat purchase proposal is getting considerable attention from economists who are interested in the geopolitics of Russia and the world.

The term geopolitics was a well known (if not always understood) term and used during the latter stages of World War II. What we now call the "Cold War" is really geopolitical activity. A rough definition of the term is that it describes the use of geography and economics, to achieve a political end. Use of the word geography is as to normal trade channels of the world and control of these through close knowledge of the commodities produced and importance to nations and areas under study.

Most students of high school level have studies something of commercial geography. In that study they find how certain products as meat exports are vital to Argentine economy and cotton exports very important to this country's economy. It is said that the south is no longer dependent on cotton. This is not quite true. Parts of the south are coming to a smaller dependence on cotton earnings, but this commodity is a large item in southern economy.

Argentine exports of beef are very important in getting funds to buy our farm machinery, etc., but this country buys little Argentine beef.

Konrad Adenauer resigned his chancellorship of West Germany, a few days ago. His achievements in his years of chancellor, guarantee a prominent position in history. His views on world trade cannot be disregarded.

One of his last statements before resignation was, "if the free peoples of the west or certain circles among them are ready now to help the Soviet Union despite all the dangers that threaten us, then I must say, only the stupidest calves choose their own butcher".

Some leading students of the economy of world wheat, point out Canada has been our strongest competitor in the export market. Canada often exported more than we did in past years. However, under recent legislation, our give-away program is aided by Public Law 480 which permits friendly nations to pay for such items as wheat, etc. in their own currency. There is a belief that Russia and other Communist countries are now being included under P.L. 480 provisions, in negotiations.

Cynics believe this wheat deal is largely intended to bar China from world supplies of wheat except as Russia wants to meet such needs. These cynics believe we are aiding Russia in its efforts to dominate China and any other satellites which may have ideas of wandering from the fold or disobeying the master of the Communist world. These cynics object to financing Russian moves which could be harmful to our own interests.

The market letter of a leading commodity house in Chicago, pointed out we in this country, work about five minutes to earn a pound of rice and three minutes for a pound of flour whereas the Russian worker put in about three quarters of an hour for these items. In comparing standards of living, costs must be computed on a basis of time required to produce commodities. Russian workers must spend from ten to fifteen times as much in commodities.

We have one per cent of the farm population and produce two-fifths to one-half of the world's production of eggs, red meat, and milk. Nine tenths of our workers are non-farm. This is a big advantage in the cold war.

Some leading students of agricultural economics of the world, do not believe that Russia's world position in the wheat situation is much different than it has been in the past. They point out that the Russian trading position is now excellent as our government has very large supplies of wheat and farmers have just rejected a government effort to force controls of wheat production.

IFWC Holds Educational Campus Day

The Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its Educational Federation Campus Day at Illinois State Normal University, Tuesday, Nov. 5. Members of women's clubs from throughout the state are expected to attend the workshop, which will focus on the university's program in special education.

Particular emphasis will be given the areas of educating the mentally gifted child and also the program for brain injured children. The women will also be given an opportunity to tour the new home economics laboratories and facilities in Turner Hall.

University President Robert G. Bone, in inviting the club members to the workshop, said, "The program has been designed to further acquaint you with the education of special groups, some of whom are found in almost all school situations."

Mrs. Richard F. Feeney of Yorkville, state education chairman for the federation, has worked with university officials in planning the day's program. She said that reservations are due by Thursday, Oct. 31, in the Office of Conference Planning at the university.

The meeting Nov. 5 will begin with a coffee hour at 9 a.m. in the lounge of Fairchild Hall, the special education center at Illinois State Normal. Dr. Arthur H. Larsen, vice president of academic affairs, will welcome the visitors at the opening session in the Fairchild solarium. Addressing the group will be Dr. Harold R. Phelps, director of the Division of Special Education, and Dr. Theodore Sands, coordinator of programs for the gifted. The women will then observe two groups, one consisting of brain injured children, the other of mentally gifted.

Luncheon will be served in Feeney Center. The afternoon program includes group discussion of observations, followed by a tour of the home economics facilities. Tea will be served by home economics students.

Good news for students! Monday, Oct. 28, school will be closed because of the Illinois Education Association Teachers' Institute. L-W teachers will attend a full day program of events at Joliet township high school.

We wonder if you mothers at home would be interested in knowing about L-W school cafeteria menus in this column. If so, why not let us know at Lincoln Way or at the editorial offices of this paper, and we'll see if arrangements could be made to publish a weekly menu for your benefit.

A final note from our bag of quotations: "Minds are like parachutes -- they only function when open."

The Lincoln Log

(EDITOR'S NOTE: To facilitate news coverage for Lincoln-Way Community High School events, we thought a column of school news would provide a log of past happenings as well as future activities. The above familiar heading will identify this section for you each week.)

Homecoming 1963 is a thing of the past now. Some of the memories are good and some are bad, but regardless of good or bad individual experiences, we like to think that the majority of students, alumni, and adults enjoyed the festivities at Lincoln-Way.

Oct. 16, marked an evening of parent-teacher conferences at school. More than 175 parents of freshman students took a night out to talk to their son or daughter's teacher. This is always an interesting experience for both, and the exchange of views and information usually benefits home and the classroom.

Meetings started at 7:00 and because of the large turnout went well past the 9:00 deadline. Under the direction of the L-W Guidance Department, this evening session of meetings was designed to create a climate of mutual understanding between the school and the home.

Seniors at Lincoln-Way had a chance to get the inside information (including the fine print) on the many complexities of insurance policies at a meeting Oct. 17. As part of the group guidance program at L-W four insurance agents talked to the seniors about the different ways insurance can be used to meet the over-all financial plan of individuals.

Forward-looking juniors gathered at school last Saturday, Oct. 19, to take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests. Known on school calendars as the P.S.A.T. tests, they are used by some organizations to award college scholarships. Actually, these tests give a student at junior level an advanced look at what college entrance exams will be like. As seniors these people will have to qualify on similar tests before they have a chance at that college sheepskin.

FUTURE EVENTS

Tomorrow night the L-W Concert Band will perform for the general public. Under the baton of Robert Taylor, the school auditorium will be filled with notes from "Night Flight to Madrid", "Star Spangled Spectacular", "Sound of Music", "First Movement of Piano Concerto in A Minor", and other selections. Lincoln-Way seniors Sandy Kooyenga and Michael Cullen will feature vocal and piano solos for the audience. Admission of 75 cents for adults, and 35¢ for student will be charged.

Prestwick Country Club Has A "House Warming"

The Prestwick Country club on Harlem ave. (42-A), half a mile south of U.S. 30, had a "house warming" on Tuesday of last week which was attended by numerous guests.

Not only did the golf course get a going over in the mild October sunshine but the Heather and Bobby Burns rooms were also quite popular.

The country club occupies about 170 acres of the 1,000 acre tract owned by Arthur T. McIntosh & Co. There is an 18-hole golf course, carrying a par of 72 and a length of 6,520 yards. It is a championship course laid out by E. Lawrence Packard and while it presents a challenge to the low handicap player it still appeals to those who take more strokes.

The club house itself was designed by Bertram A. Weber and furnished by one of the leading stores of the nation. The building has six dining rooms, four bars, locker rooms for men and women, a pro shop, and a card room. Later there is to

CANCER GROUP NOT AIDED

Dear Sir:

We are interested to learn that the United Crusade of Will county has recommended a goal of $543,212 for their community services. We feel this is a most ambitious goal and reflects the needs of a growing and aggressive county in which we live and extend our best wishes to them with the hope that they may be able to realize their goal. Since the United Crusade, Inc., has added the United Health Foundation, Inc., to their list of agencies they are collecting for we would like to clarify a statement that has been used. We quote: "All national foundations are provided for thru an agency known as United Health Foundations, Inc. Funds are used in the various research operations."

We would like to advise your readers that the American Cancer Society does not receive funds in any amount from the United Health Foundation, Inc., or from the United Fund, Inc. When the citizens of our county make their generous pledge to the United Crusade they should be aware that they are not making a contribution to the American Cancer Society or any other national organization which does not belong to the United Fund. Research is carried on through the contributions the American Cancer Society receives from industry, business and individuals at the time of their annual educational crusade during April. Since the American Cancer Society began in 1945 to support research, over $108 million has been devoted to this important part of our three-fold program of research, education and service.

To thousands of persons across the nation October first means "Moving Day," as that is the time of year when so many families change their living quarters.

To a large family of 11,000 Girl Scouts and 3,500 Girl Scout adults October first spelled "Moving Day" this year when the South Cook County Girl Scout Council moved its headquarters from 157 E. 155th st. to 15335 Broadway in Harvey. "The new program change, with its four new age levels, is making itself felt in an increase in troops and the resultant need for increased services by professional as well as clerical help," said Miss Florence Ann Schlott, Executive Director. "The Council could no longer operate efficiently at our old address. When the Board gave me an official 'O. K.' I was able to find the space we needed at the former Kerr Funeral home. With a minimum of carpenter and electrical work, we are now 'in business'."

Open House will be held from Monday, Oct. 28 through Friday, Nov. 1 from 3 to 5 p.m., in order that officials of Harvey, friends of Scouting, adult volunteers and the Girl Scouts themselves might acquaint themselves with the new Council headquarters.

"Refreshments will be served on Oct. 31 from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m., in honor of the birthday of Juliette Low, the founder of Girl Scouting in the United States," according to Mrs. George M. May, 17864 Gladville, Homewood, co-chairman with Miss Barbara Powers.

Besides Miss Schlott, Mrs. Albert Heitmann and Miss Claire Brier, newcomers to the professional staff who will greet their new family at open house are Miss Barbara Powers, assistant executive director from Van Nuys, Calif., and Miss Suzanne Gillette, professional advisor from River Forest.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leaf springs. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel Chevrolet truck engines—fours, sixes, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

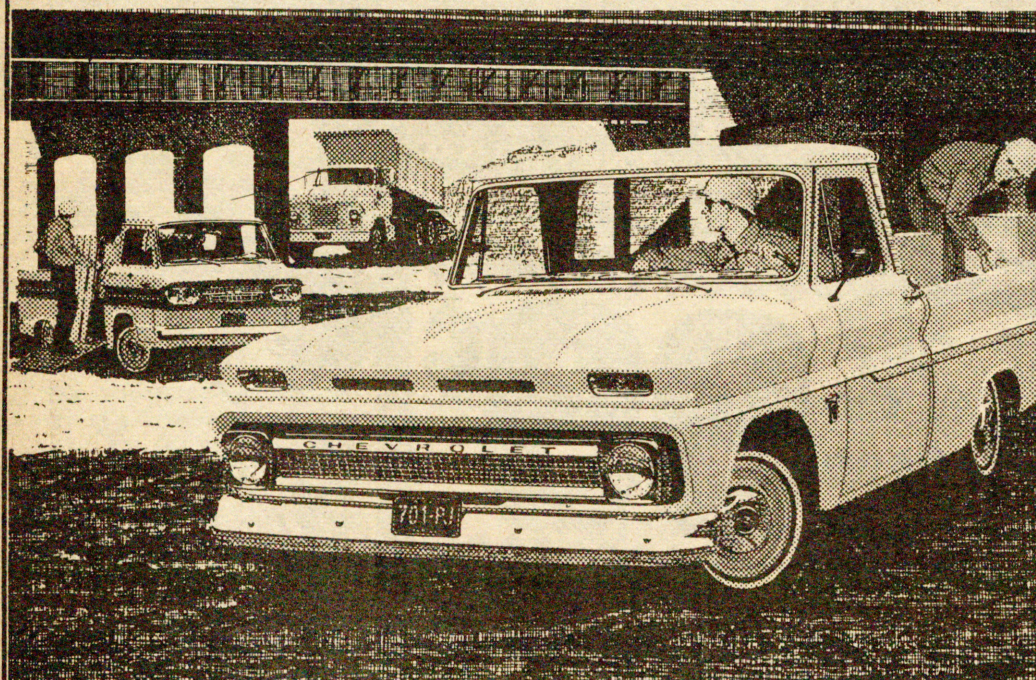

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

Quality trucks always cost less!

Outlines Merger Plans Of Rock Is., Union Pac.

R. Ellis Johnson, president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Co. outlined at a press conference in Chicago, the reasons and motivation behind his railroad's decision to seek a merger with the Union Pacific Railroad.

"The gradual erosion of railroad traffic to other forms of transportation, together with increased costs of doing business, have given us considerable concern," he said. "Our management and our board of directors have realized that a suitable merger of our lines that would fit into the transportation picture of the future was most desirable for the Rock Island and its stockholders," he declared.

Mr. Johnson explained that the Rock Island's management has kept a watchful eye on the emerging merger picture and has been at all times aware that certain planned or possible mergers of competing as well as neighboring railroads would tend to drain additional traffic away from the Rock Island if they are consummated.

"With this thinking, we concluded that a merger with the Union Pacific would be the most desirable action to be taken by our shareholders to protect their investment," he said. "I might add that this is the answer to a recent question asked by a so-called dissident group of eight Rock Island stockholders."

The Rock Island's president emphasized that a merger of the Rock Island and the Union Pacific will result in Rock Island shareholders owning an interest in an enlarged and strengthened railroad with their investment diversified.

He listed the reasons why his management is convinced the merger is a good thing. First, off, he said, the lines of the two railroads would be joined end-to-end in a railroad extending from Chicago and St. Louis to the Pacific Coast. "This will strengthen the competitive position of each against other modes of transportation as well as rail lines which already offer single-line service all the way to the West Coast," Mr. Johnson said.

The merger will also meet the competition of the combined Great Northern, Northern Pacific, and the Burlington system, which will extend from Chicago and St. Louis to the Pacific Coast if approved by stockholders and the Interstate commerce commission, he added.

"Other rail systems emerging at the present time pose additional competition with which Rock Island and Union Pacific would be at a disadvantage if they did not merge," he said.

A Rock Island-Union Pacific merger will make available to the Rock Island the financial resources of the Union Pacific, thereby enabling improvements in property and equipment, the Rock Island's chief executive stressed.

"The two lines will operate more efficiently together than either could alone. This should benefit not only Rock Island investors, but also the traveling and shipping public," Mr. Johnson said.

Summarizing his company's position, Mr. Johnson pointed out again as he has done in proxy material mailed to stockholders that Rock Island shareholders by voting to join the Union Pacific will have an investment not only in an enlarged and strengthened rail service but in extensive and diversified natural resources of oil and gas, and other minerals.

"They will share in approximately 7,840,000 acres of land owned by Union Pacific in several western states including properties already in profitable production in oil and gas fields, pipelines and mineral exploration," he concluded.

We harness the jet engine to transport natural gas

Harnessing the power of jet aircraft engines to transport natural gas is another advance made by Texas Eastern in maintaining its position as a leading pipeliner of energy. Less expensive, mass-produced jet engines are especially suited for use in compressor stations to handle peak winter loads. Modern jet engine power makes it possible to have smaller, more compact compressor stations, increased over-all efficiency and savings for us and our natural gas customers. Charges 'Cruel Hoax' On Children By Legislature

The Illinois legislature ren and school districts" in "played a cruel hoax" on child- 1963 by approving a better state aid formula, but failing to vote funds to put it into effect, State Rep. Anthony Scariano of Park Forest charged Friday night (Oct. 11).

The actual increase voted for state funds to local districts "merely kept up with the increased numbers of children" and did not improve the old formula, Scariano told the Council for Handicapped Children, meeting at Blackhawk School, Park Forest.

"When the general school appropriation suffers, special education suffers," said Scariano, who is a member of the Illinois School Problems Commission.

"Illinois contributes less than 20 percent of school costs, as against the national average of 40 percent, and 17 states pay at least 50 percent."

Special education received "token increases," Scariano said.

Among new provisions that will aid the handicapped he listed: licensing of non-professional but skilled child care aids for trainable retarded; adding to the types of personnel for which special education programs can claim partial salary repayment; permitting school districts to use community mental health clinics.

Scariano deplored the legislature's failure to require school districts to establish needed programs for educable retarded, and to forbid committing retarded, non-delinquent boys to correctional institutions.

"Judges send retarded boys to St. Charles because of the long waiting lists for Dixon and Lincoln schools for retarded," he said. "But when these boys are thrown in with delinquents, they become punching bags or are put into isolation."

Scariano said that in visiting state welfare institutions he asks superintendents the stock question of whether adequate facilities could prepare many inmates for returning to their families and community.

"They invariably say hundreds and hundreds could be rehabilitated. If we did that, in the long run, we'd save money. But as it is, we just give them a bed to get them out of the way, and maybe give them tranquilizers to keep the fire down inside."

The Council for Handicapped Children was told by leaders of Hapday Work Center, new sheltered workshop for handicapped young adults of the south suburbs that eight are now employed there.

If more contract jobs from business and industry were available, eight more handicapped perhaps could be employed immediately and some 20 later, reported Mrs. Margaret Bonney, workshop director.

A new location also is needed, she said, if the workshop is to function when some roads are likely to be snowbound. The workshop opened Sept. 9 in F-Men's Hall, Kings Road and Exchange Street, Crete.

Suggestions for contract jobs or new quarters are invited by Morris Kroll, SY 8-7045.

The CHC Friday passed a resolution urging south suburban schools to examine the possibility of setting up a program for trainable retarded.

Christmas Seal Drive Begins In Cook County

The 1963 Christmas Seal drive in Cook County was launched yesterday (Oct. 23).

More than 130 Chicago and suburban community chairmen and their committee members were at the campaign's kick-off meeting.

Keynoting the noontime event being held by the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County was Dr. William R. Barclay, associate professor of medicine at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Barclay's address covered the TB problem confronting the Chicago area and the mounting severity of other respiratory disease such as emphysema, influenza, asthma and chronic bronchitis.

Institute president, Dr. Walter C. Bornemeier, then outlined the breakdown of the Christmas Seal dollar which supports The Institute's year-round projects of chest X-rays in communities and industries, tuberculin testing in schools, research and community-medical education.

General chairman of the campaign in Chicago and Cook County, Yngvar Brynildsen has announced the drive's goal is $850,000.

The signers of the Declaration of Independence numbered 56 men... They were of varied backgrounds, ages, education, property and experience...

Some were already famous—Adams, Franklin; some were unheard of, recruited at the last minute as replacements for men who refused to support independence... Eight of the signers were born in the British Isles...

Sixteen were in their thirties; 20 in their forties; 11 in their fifties; six in their sixties; and only one, Franklin, over 70... All but two were married; each had an average of six children...

Twenty-five were lawyers; 12 were merchants; four were doctors; one a preacher; and a famous one, a printer... Half were college graduates; some were self-educated...

Five of the signers were imprisoned during the war, and one, Richard Stockton of New Jersey, died as a result of the poor treatment he received after being captured... Eventually five others lost their lives as a result of the war their Declaration set in motion... Seventeen suffered serious or total property losses...

Not one of the 56 men quailed or defected throughout the long ordeal of an often-floundering war, in a cause that sometimes seemed hopeless... Few benefitted from their bravery but not one recanted his original declaration of independence.

Americans have 71 per cent of the world's automobiles, 80 per cent of the world's hospital beds, 82 per cent of the bathtubs, 33 per cent of the world's railroads and 48 per cent of the world's radio, telegraph and telephone facilities...

The University of Karuein in Fez, Morocco, is said to be the oldest educational institution in the world, having been founded in 859 A.D....

Most frequently sung songs are "Happy Birthday to You," composed in 1893; "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," which goes back to 1781; and "Auld Lang Syne"...

The highest paid concert pianist was Ignace Jan Paderewski who received $60,000 for a single performance in Madison Square Garden in the 1920's... Longest foot race ever staged was the 1929 transcontinental run from New York to Los Angeles, won by Johnny Salvo who took 79 days to complete the course...

United States citizens—with 54—have won more Nobel prizes than those of any other nation... African Zulus believe that a rainbow is a giant serpent that emerges after a rainfall to graze...

On Second Thot

By GLENN F. LOGAN

"He will promise you the world with a fence around it," they used to say about anyone given to extravagant pledges or utterances.

People of great promise, one might say, and they have put their talents to work in various capacities.

It was from such men, for instance, that the United States drew its treaty makers to fleece the Indians. Some of the promisers have become leading figures in politics and business; some have become radio and TV announcers, and some have become just out and out con men.

Despite its dictum of "let the buyer beware," the law has accomplished quite a bit in eliminating the dangers of fine print by having certain instruments and covenants printed in same body of type that is used in the general terms.

But all the legislation will not help if the victim insists on being taken. This is not intended to mean that people deliberately get up and invite the harpoon, saying:

"Look, here I am a simple sheep and I do wish someone would come along and lead me to the slaughter pen."

The trouble with most of us is that we always want something but don't know how to get it and so we are only too eager to listen to those tell us how easy it is. Our desire outweighs caution, so we gallop hurriedly thru the fine print clauses, that are not too clear or easy to understand if taken slowly.

We listen to the siren song of the salesman, principally because he tells us what we want to hear. Too late we discover that one of the clauses overlooked specifically states that any promises or claims made for the product by the salesman are not binding on the company, only those in writing, by the company.

There are occasions when some company may give one a trick shuffle or deal off the bottom but if one is buying from a legitimate form he will find that the terms of the guarantee and any exceptions are clearly set forth. The only trouble is that most of us are too lazy or in too much of a hurry, or we like to pretend to have a knowledge we don't possess to fully digest the terms of an instrument or contract.

But say, don't the warranties and the guarantees sound wonderful when you hear them over the air. A car, a refrigerator, a TV, a washer and practically anything you buy will never wear out, according to the salesman, and if it does, we think, why there is the warranty which should enable us to rebuild or replace it for a song. It would be well to remember, however, that such singing can be expensive.

There is no reason why such guarantees cannot be made to cover 20 years, 50 years, a hundred years for that matter, as well as one or five. The "ifs" take care of it as far as the manufacturer is concerned.

The only trouble about all this is that the purchaser would have time for nothing else than to comply with the conditions. This is alright for a person of independent means and has nothing else to do than place himself at the beck and call of the manufacturer or his agent.

One finds that the splatish on the widge he bought is not functioning, or the shocks don't work, or the video has thrown a gasket and the pictures are leaking all over the floor.

One calls the shop, or the garage, or the service man and pours out his troubles.

"Bring it in," the man says politely. "Let's see now, say three weeks Thursday."

Maybe it is something so big, so heavy, that it takes a crew of men with special equipment to move. You tell the man this, altho he knows that already, but he is adamant. He is also deaf to your plea that it is imperative that the repair be made immediately.

"Three weeks Thursday," he states coldly and finally hangs up.

You appear with the thing on the appointed day and find that when the work is done you have a bill for $159, plus the war tax. You cite the warranty only to find out that if you had brought the thing in the day you called and wanted to bring it but they wouldn't let you, it would have been covered by the guarantee. Or if you had brought it in exactly 12 hours before it broke, the guarantee would have been in force, or you failed to comply with other conditions set forth in the warranty.

For the guarantee or warranty to be in force you find that you have to report for service on certain days, wearing a blue suit, an ascot tie, patent leather shoes and spats. Even so they may call a foul because you are either wearing gloves or not wearing gloves, and if you are wearing gloves they are the wrong color.

The car people also have one sign a coupon-like affair which is next to signing a promissory note because it authorizes them to perform certain services for which you pay, and pay well too, in most instances, as a part of the service agreement.

The only outfit we know of that gives a guarantee that is one, is the maker of the Zippo lighter. Anytime anything goes wrong with a Zippo all one has to do is send it in to the factory and they return it like new—and no charge.

We know that to be a fact because we have tried it.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZELL, ASSOCIATE FARM ADVISER COOK COUNTY

We are again in an extended period of dry weather. As a result we have received many calls from concerned homeowners about plants on their grounds.

Many of the calls are from people worried about the browning off of evergreens, particularly pine, juniper and arbutus. It is normal for these plants to lose their innermost or older foliage at this time of the year. The newest growth should remain a healthy green. Interior foliage is replaced as the plant grows and there is a constant replacement of leaves or needles. Less vigorous individuals will lose a greater proportion of their leaf area. The dry season, or mite, or insect damage can cause increased browning. Watering and light fertilizing now will keep the remaining leaves from turning prematurely.

How should I care for my new lawn? This is another frequently asked question. Do not allow the new grass to grow to 3 or 4 inches before you mow it. You should start when it is

Hey! You There...With The Rake! Take It Easy

Crisp autumn air may spell trouble for the man about the house, especially if he is over 40, warns Dr. Noah H. Sloan, medical director for the All-state Life Insurance Co.

Dr. Sloan says crispness in the air may induce a homeowner to engage in more exercise than is good for him, putting a severe strain on his heart.

Too much exertion hunting ducks or deer, or too much exertion raking leaves have been known to bring on heart attacks, he cautions.

"These are twin fall dangers," Dr. Sloan declares. "The hunter should not walk too far, become weakened by over-exposure or strain himself in carrying out a deer or other game. By the same token, prolonged, unaccustomed labor from leaf raking can induce heart attacks in the fall, just as snow shoveling can in winter."

Instead of attacking the leaf raking job at a furious pace, Dr. Sloan suggests a more leisurely approach. He advises:

1. Take frequent breaks. Enjoy the fall colors and the brisk air.

2. Don't carry large containers of leaves. Break the load up into easily portable amounts.

3. Whether using a leaf rake or a mechanical lawn sweeper which must be pushed, stop to rest whenever you feel winded. Don't push on to the end of the row or some other self imposed goal.

The medical director also suggests appropriate dress. Clothing should be warm, but not so tight that it restricts easy movement.
